LIVING NATIVITY SCENE
TO BE SHOWN ON COMMON

Bethel is going to have a living Nativity scene on the Common this year! The courage to put wishing into action has come from Sue Farrar. Mrs. Farrar has written to local clergymen inviting the churches to participate in the presentation of four performances during the early evening of the Sunday preceding Christmas.

At her first committee meeting Monday night, she was able to announce the following responsibilities taken care of: Bruce Bailey, animals; Mrs. Roland Glines and Mrs. Richard Littlefield, costumes; Mrs. Donald Brown, properties. Others present were Mrs. Robert Keniston, Mrs. John Frankevich and Mrs. James Fiske. Also appointed by their churches are Mrs. Dexter M. Stowell, Mrs. Lincoln Fiske, and Mrs. Norman Dock.

As a result of the first meeting, Mrs. Glines is making a request for materials people may be able to donate permanently for costumes. Needed are brocades, tapestry materials, braid, striped silks, and sheeting. These may be taken to her or left at the community room.

And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.--St. Luke 2:16

Bethel's first Living Nativity Scene, memorably presented Sunday on the Bethel Common, was a tremendous success, being viewed by an estimated crowd of 1,000 people. All Bethel churches participated; and the success of this impressive pageant can be attributed to the support of all Bethel people.

Solemn chimes of church bells, rung ten minutes before each of the three presentations, found crowds hurrying to the Manger on the Common, while participants of the pageant waited devoutly and proudly nearby. The spirit of the occasion was in the air! Christmas music started with "What Child Is This," as Mary, Joseph and the Infant arrived at the stable. Next, in adoration, came the shepherds up a lighted pathway, to the strains of "Joy to the World." Staunchly, the Wise Men marched up to the music of "We Three Kings of Orient Are," to offer their gifts. The Scene was appropriately narrated at intervals, and ended with the enlightening phrase, worth repeating, as follows:

May we all pause and reflect from time to time during this Christmas season, that we are celebrating not only a happy holiday where we give and receive gifts, but, above all, the most important single event in all history, the birth of Jesus Christ.

To the tunes of "Go Tell It To the Mountain," the Scene came to a close. All who saw it were deeply impressed and are hopefully anticipating that the Scene will become an annual occurrence.

Colorful and bright costumes representing weeks of preparation, and artistic make-up, were a tribute to arduous workmanship; and the final effect glowed under the pageant lights amid the surrounding blanket of newly fallen snow. Even the animals, the woolly sheep including the black one, the calves, burro, cow and horse standing quietly nearby seemed to be awe-inspired by it all.

Bethel people can be duly proud of their fine contribution to the Christmas season: Bethel's first Living Nativity Scene.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to all churches, school children, Gould students, organizations and individuals who so willingly gave of their time and talents and made the first Annual Living Nativity possible in our community.

Merry Christmas.

Susan Farrar
